

March 2, 2026

Dear Shareholders,

This is my first report to you, who have chosen to join us in launching our company.

I want to thank you for the trust you placed in me by appointing me president of your company.

As you all know, our company was incorporate thanks to initiatives already launched by our partners in countless businesses around the world, who have joined forces, experience, and knowledge gained over the last 25 years.

My commitment is to keep you constantly updated on our company's progress.

By the first week of April 2026, I will be able to present you with the first opening balance sheet, which will represent the figures as of March 31, 2026.

Thanking you again for your trust, I wish everyone every success.

All the best

Giuseppe Zeno
President
